

BACKSTAGE

For the second time this season . . . and this time it's for keeps . . . Milton Stiefel has made arrangements for his Ivoryton Players to perform in New London. . . . Negotiations having been completed, license having been issued, the Ivoryton Players make their debut at the BULKELEY SCHOOL AUDITORIUM, Tuesday evening, August 11, when they present the smash hit comedy "MY SISTER EILEEN" which has been playing to capacity audiences for more than two years at the Biltmore Theatre in New York. . . . Since it became apparent early this summer that many of the Ivoryton play-going "regulars" were finding it difficult, because of gasoline and tire rationing, to attend the shows at Ivoryton, Mr. Stiefel has been seeking ways and means of taking the shows to these patrons and the NEW LONDON ENGAGEMENT is the result. . . . He is at present in negotiations for numerous current Broadway successes to follow "MY SISTER EILEEN" and also with several stars of stage and screen for the leading roles. . . . Naturally it is with a sense of deepest regret that Mr. Stiefel finds it necessary to close his beloved Playhouse in Ivoryton in the middle of this, its 13th (mark that well!) season, but he is keeping his company intact and all the Playhouse favorites will be on hand "as usual" in New London. . . . Many of the patrons in the immediate vicinity of Ivoryton are already planning to visit the plays in New London by taking the train up from Saybrook and returning on the train that arrives back at 11:55. . . . Reservations may be made all this week at the Ivoryton box-office or at Star Bros., New London.
